REP. LOU BARLETTA ENDORSES KEVIN DELLICKER FOR CONGRESS

Dellicker proudly accepts support from former U.S. Representative and Mayor of Hazleton

HAZLETON, PA – The Honorable Lou Barletta, former Congressman, statewide candidate, and Mayor of Hazleton, today endorsed Kevin Dellicker to represent Pennsylvania’s 7th District in the U.S. House of Representatives.

“Kevin Dellicker is an accomplished businessman, military officer, and community leader who has been serving his country for almost thirty years,” said Barletta. “He brings practical experience and relevant knowledge to Congress, which is exactly what our nation needs right now.”

Dellicker thanked Lou Barletta for his support and his outstanding career in public service. “Lou Barletta was effective because he never lost touch with his neighbors who sent him to Washington,” said Dellicker. “That’s a lesson I’ll remember and emulate when I get to Congress.”

Kevin Dellicker is the founder of a technology company that helps organizations upgrade their broadband infrastructure and protect their digital information. He’s a 28-year veteran of the U.S. Armed Forces with four combat zone deployments. Kevin is trained as a Christian minister and lives on a small farm in Germansville with his wife Susan and three sons Will, Jake, and Eli.

“Kevin is no career politician,” said Barletta. “I’ve seen too often people who say they want to be elected to fix the problems in Washington and then they become the problem. Kevin Dellicker won’t get caught up in that.”

Dellicker agreed. “I want to go to Washington, get the job done, and come back home to Germansville,” said Dellicker. “That’s what being a citizen legislator is all about.”
