SEN. JARRETT COLEMAN ENDORSES KEVIN DELLICKER FOR CONGRESS

Dellicker proudly accepts support from Republican Senator representing Pa.'s 16th Senate District.

GERMANSVILLE, PA –Senator Jarrett Coleman, a leading advocate for government transparency and reform, has endorsed Kevin Dellicker for Pennsylvania's 7th District in the U.S. House of Representatives.

"Kevin Dellicker is exactly the type of leader we need in Washington," said Coleman, who represents Pennsylvania's 16th Senate District and chairs the Senate Intergovernmental Operations Committee. "He's no career politician," said Coleman. "Kevin has real world experience in the most important issues affecting our nation, and he's the best person to defeat Susan Wild in November."

Dellicker thanked Coleman for his support and for his fearless promotion of government reform. Dellicker noted that both he and Coleman have successful careers outside of politics and neither depend on elective office for their livelihood. "In a very short time, Senator Coleman has emerged as a force to be reckoned with in Harrisburg," said Dellicker. "I'm proud to call him a friend and have his endorsement."

Kevin Dellicker is the founder of a technology company that helps organizations upgrade their broadband infrastructure and protect their digital information. He's also a 28-year veteran of the U.S. Armed Forces with four combat zone deployments. Kevin is a Christian minister and lives on a farm in Germansville with his wife Susan and three sons Will, Jake, and Eli.

"Kevin won't get caught up in political gamesmanship," said Coleman. "And when he arrives in Washington, you can count on Kevin to remember who sent him there, the people of the 7th District."

Dellicker agreed. "I want to go to Congress, get the job done, and come back home to Germansville," said Dellicker. "That's what being a citizen legislator is all about."

Senator Coleman and Kevin Dellicker look forward to welcoming former President Donald Trump to Schnecksville next Saturday. Both have endorsed him for president and support America First policies.
